NUMBER EIGHTEEN

ELECT SIRACUSA NEW A. S. PRESIDENT

Will Offer Six One-Act Plays

FOUR DRAMAS ON J. C. BILL FOR TONIGHT

Charge No Admission

Three Student Directors Placed In Charge Of New Productions

Offering their second series of one-act plays this afternoon in the auditorium at 4 o'clock and tonight at 7:45, members of the college drama department will present a varied program, free to the public. President D. K. Hammond has given his sincere approval to the policy of no admission, which permits everyone to enjoy the entertainment.

The three student directors, Miss Marjorie Arundell, Mitchell Hookins, and Dean Wright, are responsible for the majority of the plays. They have been assisted by Ernest Crozier Phillips, instructor.

Wilton Hilliard Named President Of Gauchos Club

Election of officers for next semester and plans for several social events were taken up by the members of Los Gauchos at the home of Howard Barnes, in Orange Monday night. Wilton Hilliard was re-elected president, James Quiggle, was elected vice-president, Dewitt Bishop, secretary, and Elmer Kogler retained his position as treasurer. Charles Stehly is the new social chairman, while Calvin Stillwell was selected as the new service chairman.

It was decided that the Gaucho dinner-dance would be at the Highway Tea Gardens February 5.

The Gaucho dance to be held in April was discussed at the meeting. The club plans to make it one of the biggest and most colorful events of the year. The overnight ocean trip to Santa Cruz Island was postponed to a later date when more definite information can be obtained.

Refreshments were served to Dewitt Bishop, Thomas Donahue, Estil Hamil, James Quiggle, Kenneth Patrick, Howard Randles, Elmer Kogler, Charles Stehly, Bob Brown, Morris Singer, Wilton Hilliard, Fred Pinkston, Calvin Stillwell, Roy Arms, Howard Barnes, and Horace Scott, club adviser.

Breakfast Club Has Semester Elections

New officers were elected for the college Breakfast club during a meeting held Sunday. The election results were as follows: Russell Koons, president; Richard Evans, vice-president; Howard Randles, secretary; and Roy Wheeler, treasurer. Koons succeeds Bob Brown as president; Evans replaces Koons as vice-president; Randles takes Ken Eastman's place as secretary, and Wheeler was elected treasurer for the second successive semester.

Call Good Attendance Big Feature Of Annual Snow Party

More than 200 students and faculty members of the Santa Ana junior college spent Saturday at Big Pines, Los Angeles County Playgrounds, in what has been declared to be the best-attended snow frolic ever staged by the college.

Miss Marjorie Arundell, present social commissioner, had charge of general arrangements and was assisted by Tom Cone, Grand Exalted of the Brotherhood of Bachelors, who arranged transportation.

Snow ball fighting, skiing, tobogganing, dancing, and hiking were among the features of the all-day frolic.

CHOICE DANCE ON J. C. SLATE

Women Students Will Hold Affair January 29

January 29 will be the date for the Associated Woman Students' Annual Leap Year dance to be held at the Women's Club in Orange.

Music will be furnished by Carleton Smith's orchestra. The Associated Women Students have given these Ladies' choice dances for the past few years. This being Leap Year, much time and effort has been spent in making the coming dance the biggest and the best ever given.

Many of the service clubs of the college have helped with the plans. They are as follows: Spinters, Decorations; chairman, Adaruth Ellis; Moavs, programs; chairman, Helen Weissman; Las Gitaoas, check room; chairman, Velma Bishop; Las Meninas, refreshments; chairman, Clare Hymers; Advertisement, Katherine Robbins and Mary Nalle; tickets, Virginia Warner; place secured by Elizabeth Palmer; orchestra secured by Hazel Hushman.

Debating Team Wins Over Chaffey Group

Santa Ana's debating team, Lewis Bates and William Salisbury, won the decision Friday afternoon in a debate with Chaffey junior college. Eugene Knox, head of the public speaking department at Whittier college, who acted as judge, gave high rating to Rickett and Smith of Chaffey for speaking ability.

Beta Gamma Society Raises Gift Money

In order to raise the $25 graduation gift to be presented to the most outstanding student of extra-curricular activities, Beta Gamma has obtained apple vending machines.

One of the machines is situated at the south end of the main hall in the junior college building, and interest has been shown in it by students from both the high school and junior college.

The machines were obtained from the Los Angeles Apple company.

Sophomore pictures for the Del Anon will be taken starting February 15, for those students graduating in June. No pictures will be taken, however, unless a receipt from the business office for the usual $1 fee is presented at the studio at the time of the appointment. Students will be notified of the time of their appointment by a notice on the bulletin board.

Educational Leader Favors Move For Building of New Plant Here For Santa Ana College Students

Speaking before a gathering of clubs presidents and the executive board in the Y-Hut Thursday, Dr. Percy R. Davis, Santa Ana Superintendent of Schools, discussed possibilities for a new junior college campus.

"A plant adequate for a student body numbering 1200 could be built and maintained if the people of Santa Ana would set aside six dollars per year, this pro-rated on $7,500 actual property value," Dr. Davis announced.

He explained that because of the junior college's over-crowded conditions and the rapid growth of daily attendance over a period of 10 years, that either the junior college would be put down to the level of a glorified high school or student influence would have to affect new college buildings.

Aside from all the disadvantages of a 6-4-4 plan, if the college adopted such a measure, the possibility of becoming a four year college would be destroyed for Santa Ana, according to Dr. Davis.

In group discussion the fact was pointed out that Santa Ana does not realize that classes are held in the cafeteria, that class rooms are crowded to capacity, that class rooms have not been found for four courses to be offered next semester, that with inadequate housing an inadequate curriculum must be scheduled, that high school students now occupy rooms in the junior college building, and that enrollment has increased to a student body of 784.

The advantages and possibilities of a four year college in Santa Ana were enumerated as follows: the half million dollars now spent by students who go away to universities would be spent in Santa Ana; the salaries of instructors would bring into the city; and the cultural value of such an institution is inestimable to the city.

As the county has reached no decision on a combination of Fullerton and Santa Ana junior colleges, the alternatives were stressed that either Santa Ana must realize the necessity and opportunity of a new junior college or students must submit to high school organization; and the jaycees must bring the fact to the city of Santa Ana.

Further business included reports on radio programs, parking situation, size of pictures for the annual, and (Continued on page 4)

Clubs Will Hold Joint Gathering

Despite the failures of recent attempts to have a joint party, Press club and O. K. club members have selected the Whittier skating rink for their party in early February. The last date decided upon interfered with the college snow party at Big Pines.

Lorean Beard, president of the O. K. organization, is making arrangements for the luncheon. The scribes will furnish transportation. This latter organization is headed by Glover Hendrickson, who has announced a nomination meeting Monday, January 29.

Will Offer Many New Art Courses

Three new art courses will be offered next semester, according to Miss Anna M. Gilles, head of the junior college art department.

"Art structure" is given for those who wanted a beginning course last fall and could not arrange for it. This is a beginning course and is the one recommended for elementary teaching.

The pottery class of last semester will study modeling in addition to pottery. A similar course was popular last year.

An introduction to art, "Art 19," is open to any student regardless of his major.

Editor of Del Anon Says 1932 Annual To Have New Features

"The 1932 Del Anon is entering into the modern field of the distinctly new and different," announces Miss Dulcie Green, editor. "As every enterprise of today strives to present the unusual, so are the workers on Del Anon endeavoring to keep in step with this movement."

"The art staff, under the direction of Miss Anna M. Gilles, is organizing new material and methods by which to carry out the theme of the book. This method is new in the field of annual publications and will make the Santa Ana yearbook one of the original few to use this distinctive procedure."

"The cover this year will follow the lines of advanced book-binding. It is the first time that the Weber-McCrae binding company has been requested to create such a unique cover. To make the edition more superior the annual will be stiff backed and will have the seal of the college stamped in gold leaf."

"The Rabe-Lyle studios have been given the photography contract."

Thomas E. Williams, print shop head, is most interested in the modern movement.

"The business staff, with L. L. Beeman, is working to attain the best result from its budgeted amount. Varying from the years before, Del Anon tickets will not be sold separately this year. Those wishing to receive an annual must be holders of Associated Student tickets. Membership cards are available in the auditor's office."

Motion Pictures In Geography 1A Shown

Life on the Sahara Desert was featured in a motion picture in Geography 1A class, Friday Scenes depicted life in the various North African countries. Pictures of desert scenery were displayed upon the blackboard screen.

SHARPLEY MAY GO EAST SOON

Phi Theta Kappa Society Convention Is Due

Phi Theta Kappa members are devising means of raising sufficient funds to send its president, Bernard Sharpley, to the national convention in Mississippi this spring.

Elmer Kogler, who was on the committee to consult the Associated Student board, reported that the board would not be able to help the honor organization financially. However, it will allow Phi Theta Kappa to make plans for earning money for the trip.

According to Miss Lella B. Watson, faculty adviser, the national convention for Phi Theta Kappa is one of the biggest events of the year. She added that if Santa Ana could send a delegate, it would be advantageous for the entire West, as she considers it improbable that any other junior colleges will send a representative from such a distance.

Members present at the meeting were Mrs. Helen McArthur, the Misses Watson, Elizabeth Riniker, Goldie Peale, Mary Lou Heath, and Mary Mateer; and Messrs. Bernard Sharpley and Elmer Kogler.

Continue Study Of Paul At Club Meet

Under the leadership of McKee Fisk, dean of Santa Ana college, the Breakfast club continued its study of the book "Paul" in its first meeting since the Christmas holidays.

After the usual Sunday morning breakfast, discussion centered about "Paul in Rome".

Mr. Fisk, Bob dePree and Roy Wheeler gave instances of the twentieth century which they believed were "Paul like" in activity.

INVITATION

A special invitation is extended all members of the college Y. M. and Y. W. to attend a dramatization and discussion of the book "Jungles" to be held Sunday evening, February 24, in the main auditorium of the First Congregational church of Santa Ana.

Critics have stated that this book is one of the most interesting that has been written and should be of great interest to college students.

BULLETIN

LEWIS BATES RECEIVES 86 FIRST VOTES

Wheeler Wins Office

Hushman, Crawford Poll Heavily In Races For Other Positions

Dante Siracusa, treasurer, today holds the presidency of the Associated Students of Santa Ana junior college, following a close election Monday in which Lewis Bates, commissioner of forensics, tied in the number of first choices with 86 votes, but only to lose out when second choices were tabulated on the choice ballot.

A prominent member of the Buccaneers, men's service club, and an athletic participant in football and baseball, Siracusa has been active in extra-curricular affairs. He belongs to numerous campus clubs.

Complete election returns: Dante Siracusa, president; Roy Wheeler, vice-president; Hazel Hushman, secretary; Jac Crawford, treasurer.

Securing 113 votes to his opponent's 101, Roy Wheeler was given a close race for vice-presidential honors by Walter Wilson. Both are non-service club members, but contrary to various reports, were in favor of the policies used by the campus service organizations.

Wheeler with his publicity experience, is well fitted for the vice-presidential duties, which call for the handling of all college advertising.

Miss Hazel Hushman, with 122 votes, defeated Miss Elizabeth Skiles, with 91, in the race for secretary.

Bachelors Elect Clayton Exalted For Coming Term

At the regular meeting of the Brotherhood of Bachelors held Monday evening in the home of George Blewitt, officers for the second semester were elected.

Those to serve next semester are Harry Clayton, grand exalted; Gene Hall, senior exalted; Bill Campbell, junior exalted; Duncan Harnois, keeper of the writ; Jack Weatherly, bachelor bouncer; and Harry Holmes, member at large. The formal installation will take place at the annual banquet which will take place just before the ball.

Everett Idlor gave a report on approximate costs of the Bachelors Ball and it was decided that the Ball will be held February 20, at either the Breakers Hotel at Long Beach or at Norco. Idlor's orchestra will furnish the music.

Lower Requirements At U. C. Institution

Although the State university at Berkeley has lowered the number of credits for entrance, the credits must be in six specified subjects. This final reduction to eight recommended units was decided upon by the academic senate recently and will go into effect soon.

The subjects selected are English, history, algebra, a laboratory, science any foreign language and any advanced mathematics. Until a year ago fifteen units were required, but the rule was flexible. A letter from a principal could obtain admittance for a student who had not the necessary number of units.

With the final lowering of requirements the rule is fixed, the subjects are selected, and there is to be no deviation.

EL DON'S PLATFORM

It is the aim of El Don as the official newspaper of the Santa Ana Junior College Associated Students to—

- 1—Take an active interest in the welfare of the association and aid in the progress and promotion of the organization's activities.
- 2—Assist in making the Santa Ana junior college the best educational institution of its kind in California.
- 3—Promote the most friendly and cooperative relationship possible between students of the school and faculty members.
- 4—Assist student officials in discharging their duties by presenting the attitude of students on problems of the association.
- 5—Offer unbiased, truthful and enterprising accounts of events on the campus thereby aiding in the promotion of such activities.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

What About It?

A MATTER OF SUPREME INTEREST TO ALL SANTA ANA JUNIOR COLLEGE STUDENTS WAS PRESENTED IN A VERY FORCEFUL MANNER AT THE PRESIDENTS' GOOD FORTUNE TO LISTEN TO DR. PERCY R. DAVIS, SANTA ANA SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, IN A DISCUSSION OF PLANS FOR A NEW SANTA ANA JUNIOR COLLEGE PLANT.

AMONG OTHER THINGS DR. DAVIS STATED THAT IT WAS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY THAT WE HAVE A NEW JUNIOR COLLEGE IN THE NEAR FUTURE, IF WE ARE TO CONTINUE AS A COLLEGE INSTITUTION. HE FURTHER SAID THAT IF THIS DOES NOT COME TO PASS, THE 6-4-4 PLAN WILL BE INSTITUTED AS A TEMPORARY RELIEF MEASURE FOR THE ALREADY OVERCROWDED CONDITIONS.

THUS WE HAVE A MAJOR PROBLEM STARING US IN THE FACE; AND ONE WHICH WE AS JUNIOR COLLEGE STUDENTS CAN DO MUCH TO SOLVE. THE POINT IS SHALL WE PUT UP WITH THE 6-4-4 PLAN OF SHALL WE ENJOY THE PLEASURES OF A NEW SANTA ANA JUNIOR COLLEGE? IT IS UP TO US TO SOLVE A LARGE PART OF THAT QUESTION. AS DR. DAVIS POINTED OUT, WE ARE A POWERFUL FORCE IN GAINING A NEW INSTITUTION. THEREFORE, LET US REALIZE OUR POWERS, TALK THIS MATTER UP, AND ALL BUT TURN ORANGE COUNTY UPSIDE DOWN BUT WHAT WE GAIN OUR ENDS—THAT OF A NEW SANTA ANA JUNIOR COLLEGE HOW ABOUT IT?—Wilton Hilliard.

Old Man Procrastination

"The difficulty for the journalist, as for everyone, is the time lag. I have had a rather tough time because nature constituted me so that when a thing happens I perceive it has happened I perceive it has happened. Most people take about 20 years to realize it."

George Bernard Shaw spoke these words recently. They are true. Most of us fail to realize what has happened until long after the events.

Take the matter of examinations, for example. The three-hour quizzes will go into effect tomorrow. During these few days preceding the fatal time there has been some doubt as to the final result of the semester's work. Many students will persist in reviving the age old custom of reading the text book the night before.

Although the honorable and sensible course would be to meet the discipline of regularity which is asked but not insisted upon, we probably will continue the old negligence unless something drastic is done. Surely we realize our mistake. We know it is injuring our future independence. The only way to solve the problem is to exert a great deal of will power and energize a large amount of "go-gettism". Even great men like Bernard Shaw realize their deficiencies in preparedness, but undoubtedly these would be much less if their doors had seriously endeavored to correct them during their career. Here comes a new semester, new records, new ideas. Why not around or jump over the old rut?

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

By Paul Wright

When the Earth's last paper is finished,
And the type is scrambled and pied,
When the roar of the press becomes fainter,
And the sheets are folded and dried,
We shall rest, and by faith we shall need it
For the way has been weary and long
And oft we have heard that old chestnut:
"Young man, you have quoted me

Author unknown (the above probably was his last deed on Earth.)

WITH THIS ISSUE, El Don and I shake hands, bid adieu after semesters of friendship. While serving as sports editor and managing editor in 1930-31, I was in a position to make few enemies. The sports editor can make enemies only with the athletes; the managing editor, nothing more than an honorary reporter, has time aplenty to prepare his college studies; he does very little more than the average reporter. But it is this honorary person who usually shoulders the responsibilities of the following semester, and who, in the estimation of every El Don editor-in-chief of my acquaintance—Alfred Ault, Ray Lind-Sky, Dunlap, Oran Asa, and Richard Robbins—learns to "take" considerable. If I have made any enemies this semester, and I know I have made a few, may they . . . (The rest is left for you to figure out!)

TO ROBERT DURBIN, sports editor, I should like to extend my sincerest appreciation for the interest which he has manifested in this publication during my position as editor. Undoubtedly my greatest and most willing helper, he has offered his services in a manner characteristic of every true newspaper worker. Durbin is one of the most reliable students on the campus today. Perhaps this trait has been responsible for his staying on the job until 11 and 11:30 two and three nights a week. Furthermore, I double everything that has been said!

EUGENE STEVENS, circulation manager, has handled his duties carefully and efficiently this semester. Although holding down a staff position seldom seen in the mast head, Stevens has gone about his work without a whimper. That's the true Don spirit.

THEN, THERE ARE the reporters to consider. In my estimation the following "beatsters" were the outstanding contributors to El Don: That is, journalistically speaking, and here they are, to-wit: Miss Elizabeth Skiles, Eugene Robb, Miss May Maag, Miss Mary Mateer, Mrs. Katherine Mateer, Nell Neighbor, Wayne Bartholomew, and the Misses Jane Cunningham and Evelyn Green.

SAN BERNARDINO, learning that Chaffey junior college waxed Santa Ana 53 to 25, must have been in an enjoyable mood during last week's practice. But this joy undoubtedly left the Indians during the first quarter of their game with Coach Bill Foote's Dons at San Berdo Saturday. Yes, the Dons won, and for full particulars, read the El Don sports page. What's more, Santa Ana will win the majority of its remaining games, especially the one with Fullerton! I am in favor of Santa Ana beating that neighboring institution in every athletic meeting.

BIG PINES CAMP was the scene last Saturday for what students have declared to be Santa Ana junior college's most enjoyable snow party. Again Miss Marjorie Arundell, a truly great social commissioner, scores! Her helpers also should be praised, for the manner in which the whole affair was handled attracted considerable attention.

MEETING REGULARLY for the final time last Monday, the Executive Board will hold a joint session with new officers soon, and then its duties will be terminated. George Griffith, president of the Associated Students, has served well this semester. Severe objections to his policies have not been found. Each member of his

POPULAR BELIEFS

Superstition is a word of uncertain origin. The early history of the human race produced a mass of "superstition" borne of ignorance and fear. Recent studies have shown that few even of the most highly educated men and women are free of its traces. Many of these appear, however, merely as survivals of childhood practices; others are retained as unusual fancies.

Following is a number of prevalent popular superstitions to which students attribute the results of the forthcoming examinations:

Bugaboo, or Bogle—Recalcitrant infants were frightened into being "good", during former times by these words. Their origins seem to be doubtful, though "Bugaboo" (and possibly "Bogie") may be traced to the Celtic word "pouca" meaning a mischievous phantom; or to the old French "bugibu", the name of a demon.

Four-leaved-clover—The fancy of luck attaching to the finding of the four-leaved clover probably springs like so many other beliefs, from the rare or unusual occurrence of the four leaves. In Ireland the corresponding superstitions are connected with the four leaved shamrock. The miniature Maltese cross formed by the leaves suggests itself as additional reason for belief in the four-leaved clover as a talisman.

Ill-Luck on Friday—Superstitions which attribute ill-luck to this day of the week may have originated among the Norsemen. With them Friday was sacred to the goddess Freya, the Northern Venus. Anyone who undertook a journey or devoted himself to business projects on this day was looked upon as dishonoring her, and she was known to avenge herself by overwhelming him with misfortune. Among Christians this irrational fear of Friday as a day of ill-omen is also associated with the death of Christ. Friday, however, is but one of the many days which the strange fancies of astrology have declared unlucky.

Lucky horseshoe—English speaking countries and the Scandinavians maintain a custom of nailing a horseshoe over the door as a talisman and a charm against evil spirits. Among the ancient Saxons and the Irish the horse was regarded as a creature that brought good luck. Ancient authorities averred that the horseshoe must be placed with the open side up, else the luck would all run out. Finding horseshoes is also said to be lucky, and it is affirmed that if a maid find one with nails in it, their number counts the years before she will marry.

Unlucky 13—By many authorities the superstitious dread of 13 is said to have had its origin in the fact that Christ and his disciples made a total of 13, and that he was betrayed by one of them. Traces of the superstition, however, are found in the traditions of many ancient people. Its exact history is unknown, but belief in it still lingers as one of the ancient human follies that have resisted the attack of satire and the admonitions of reason.

board has lived up to expectations; a successful term has reached its destination.

WITHIN ANOTHER TWO weeks, women of the college will have gone through an experience faced consistently by the men, and that is the task of securing dates. Yes, the women's choice dance, sponsored by the A. W. S. this year, is just around the corner.

FIESTA DAY, WHEN Dons and Donnas carry out traditions of early California in a celebration to which all county high school graduates receive invitations, will be held in May this year. Now is the time to start talking about this event. A well-planned program will insure a wider interest among county graduates, and may revamp several 1932-33 university plans. A Fiesta Day chairman will be appointed in the near future, it is learned.

WITH A PARTING GLANCE at the poem heading this column, I turn the reins over to another editor-in-chief, one who will be selected this week. May he have the best of luck!

"How do I open this tin?"
"You will find the instructions inside, madam."

Guest: "I'd be happy to perform some tricks this evening, but I haven't the necessary equipment with me."

Host: "What kind of tricks do you perform?"

Guest: "Coin tricks."

CHAMELEONS

Old man depression is knocking at our door. Exams! Exams! Exams! The long dreaded week has arrived. Comparisons are odious. But aren't the students perhaps like the Chameleon? Today white with fear, tomorrow while taking exams green, and next week when papers are back the blues will reign supreme.

Perhaps one of the compensations of being dumb is the thrill you get when you get a D instead of an F.

It is said that, "A Freshman knows not, and knows that he knows not, and therefore he is to be encouraged; But a Sophomore knows not, and knows not that he knows not, and therefore is to be squelched."

Listen comrades! and take courage from Elbert Hubbard, who says, "God will not look at you for medals, degrees or diplomas, but for scars."

Pretty soon there were two ladies to be seen issuing from a building escorted by a man.

We used the right recipe and put it on to boil.

The room was dark, and a big pumpkin was on the table, which had been scooped out.

One of the boys threw a snowball and hit a man who was passing on the hat and knocked his hat off.

The Rev. Mr. Tomlinson states that he wants a steady, religious young man to look after his garden and care for his car who has a good voice and is accustomed to singing in the choir.

FROM GOLD TO SCARLET

Paying respect to the honor bestowed on this section of the country as the location for the 1932 Olympic meet, certain Southern Californians have developed a new floral creation which they call "The Olympiad". It is described as a red rose of transcendental beauty. The red is that of a flame and at the base the petals are pure gold, quickly changing to the most vivid oriental scarlet, with a fiery lustre and depth unique in tone and intensity.

For novelty and coloring it is the equal of the Talisman and it is far superior in form. The buds are large and pointed, opening to a large, handsome flower of generous petalage, but never heavy or coarse. It makes a vigorous bush, flowering freely on long stems. The foliage is a healthy rich green, with a fine gloss.

In connection with this new find a review of some of the most beautiful and most recent rose creations might be of interest to botanist and flower lovers. In the forefront this season is the "Mrs. Sam McGredy" of a striking copper orange, heavily flushed with Lincoln red. President Hoover is a combination of cerise, pink, flame, scarlet, and yellow; Margaret McGredy, oriental red passing to carmine rose; Miss Rowena Thom, a California rose of great size, fully double, flame rose tinged old gold; Lord Charlemont, a glowing velvety crimson; E. G. Hill and Johanna Hill, ranking among the very best as a red and yellow rose, and Joseph Looymans, one of the very best deep or tangerine roses.

Tuning In

ON NEWS OF THE PAST Mary Mateer, Dialer

ONE YEAR AGO THIS WEEK

John "Sky" Dunlap, former editor-in-chief of "El Don" today holds the presidency of the Santa Ana junior college Associated Students for the coming semester as a result of the balloting yesterday in the closest and most exciting election ever held in the history of the organization.

Six Santa Ana junior college singers will leave Santa Ana Sunday, February 1, for an extended concert tour which will reach Chicago, where on February 12, the final concert will be given. The tour is sponsored by the Santa Fe railroad, who will pay all the expenses, and the concerts will be given to railroad employees along the way.

Formulating plans for the biggest Bachelors' Ball in the history of that annual event, members of the Brotherhood meet at the home of George Blewitt in Anaheim Monday night and set the date definitely for February 28 at the Lake Norconian club.

McKee Fisk, dean of the junior college, today releases the schedule of classes for the second semester, which revealed that 89 new courses will be offered.

The German club of the junior college is planning to attend at least one of the operas that are soon to be brought to Los Angeles by the German Grand Opera company.

Marion Parsons, now commissioner of women's athletics, was recently named chairman of the fourth annual fiesta, to take the place of Miss Maybelle Ball, who was originally appointed, but resigned.

Two church contacts have been made in as many weeks by the local college "Y" deputation team.

CHUCKLES

The recent refusal of a Colorado town to pass a curfew law caused Judge Lindsey to remark:

"Perhaps that was a mistake. Modern youth, without some curb, takes almost as little heed of time as it does of morals. I do not mean that our youth is bad. It is just heedless."

"Too many of our young people are like Johnny, who brought his girl friend home at five o'clock one morning and found himself confronted in the hallway by her irate father."

"What do you mean by bringing my daughter home at this hour," demanded her angry father.

"My gosh!" expostulated Johnny, "I really had to. You see, sir, it's five o'clock now and I have to go to work at six."

Efficiency Expert: "You are wasting too much time on your personal appearance."

Typist: "It's not wasted. I've only been here six months, and already I'm engaged to the junior partner."

"What are you going to give Jack for Christmas?"

"The necktie I gave him last Christmas."

"How can you give him something he already has?"

"He hasn't got it. He gave it to me for my anniversary."

"Could you learn to love me?"

Gene Hall to Dorothy Mason.

"Well," sighed Dorothy, "I learned shorthand in three weeks."

Lady: "I want to buy a radio on the instalment plan."

Dealer: "Can you give a reference?"

Lady: "Yes, indeed. The last dealer we bought one from will be glad to tell you that there wasn't a single scratch on the cabinet when he took it back!"

Wife: "Dear, why do you occasionally wrap up what's left of your toast and carry it off?"

Artist: "Why, I do some of my best charcoal sketches with it."

WOODBURY TO TACKLE DONS FRIDAY

Practice Game To Fill Bye On Schedule. Foote Will Try All Men

Coach Bill Foote's cagemen will engage in two stiff practice games this week, one on Wednesday with Hawley's quintet and one on Friday evening with Woodbury's college first string quintet. All team supporters will have the privilege of seeing both games as they will be played in Andrew's gymnasium in the evening, starting at eight o'clock.

After last week's display of team work and accurate basket shooting, Coach Bill Foote was well pleased with team. Previous to last week's game Coach Bill Foote was dissatisfied with the team's accuracy and as a result Foote drilled on basket shooting and working the ball in extensively. This week the improved showing in the San Bernardino game, Coach Bill Foote can drill on the finer points of running plays in general improve the finesse of the team's plays.

Both games are sure to prove thrillers as both teams are on a par with the jaycee squad. Hawley's team is composed of a team of well experienced men. In the past Hawley's team have proved to be exceptionally strong. Woodbury's college team have fine record with the strong L. A. city teams which they play regularly.

Pomona Next
Pomona junior college will be next to the next league game on the list for jaycee team. The game will be played January 30th. The excellent showing of the team against San Bernardino, it looks as if the Foote quintet may be able to win the rest of the season's league games.

Elwood Lindley may return to the lineup by the time of the Pomona game. As yet he has not returned to practice but it is expected that he will be able to practice soon.

Margaret Glenn Secured To Help Coach Women's Hockey Team

Margaret Glenn, graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles and formerly of Santa Ana high school, has been secured to help Coach Ellen Foote with the hockey team.

Miss Glenn played on all the teams when she was in the Santa Ana institutions. She was president of the second Girls Athletic Association in the Santa Ana high school. She was also active in the college circles while attending this college, and continued her work at U. C. L. A.

She gave her assistance to Mrs. Foote during the basketball season by refereeing and on practice days giving suggestions to the players.

INTERCLASS TRACK MEET IS SCHEDULED FEBRUARY TWELFTH ON POLY FIELD

Coach Bill Cook Has Many Dual Meets in Line for Coming Track Season. Meets May Be Held With Loyola Varsity And Pomona Frosh

Coach Bill Cook has set February 12, as the date for the interclass track meet that will be held soon after the second semester begins. This event is an annual affair and this year should prove to be the most successful in the history of the college's sports.

With an entry list of more than 50 already formulating, the competition should prove to be very close. All the regular track events will be included in the program and the points will count five for first, three for second, two for third, and one for fourth.

To Award Ribbons
Ribbons will be awarded to the first four finishers in each of the scheduled events. There is a possibility that the meet may extend over a period of two or three days, if students who plan to enter can't make arrangements because of a late study schedule. The competition is open to all students who are eligible, according to the requirements necessary to participate in intercollegiate sports, as listed in the college constitution.

Many men have already started to work out and should be in good condition before the meet is held. Coach Cook will elect some member of the freshman class to captain their team and make arrangements to enter the men in the various events. Doyle Gilbert, regular team captain, will have charge of the sophomores who enter.

A meeting of all college track candidates will be held sometime this week, and all men who have or have not had experience on the cinder oval are asked to attend and help make arrangements for the coming season.

Dual Meets Scheduled
Letters have been sent to many colleges and junior colleges in order to locate some practice dual meets primary to the league meets that will start with a meet at Chaffey, February 20.

Coach Cook expects to receive answers to some of his letters which were sent to such colleges as Pomona, Occidental, Redlands, and Loyola. Practices are being held every night, and Captain Doyle Gilbert urges all men interested in track to report any night after school.

Current Sport News From Other Camps

COMPTON—"Tom Yancey, former Compton student and football hero, is now enrolled in the Fresno State college."

"Vic Williams, former Compton track king and national quarter mile champion, has acquired more honors by being named among the ten outstanding athletes of the year for the Sullivan medal. The contestants for this medal are chosen from every kind of sport and athletic event. "Pepper" Martin, world series hero, was named first, and Elsworth Vines, national tennis champion, ranked second."

Los Angeles Junior College—Glenn C. Ackerman has now turned from football and is now taking up his duties as varsity basketball mentor. Ackerman guides the Cub quintet against the powerful Glendale junior college varsity in the second conference game of the city season Saturday night.

Six men were crowned champions of their respective wrestling divisions as a result of winning their bouts in the finals of the Men's stag last Wednesday night. McGovern, Carlton, Ando, Rosenbaum, Baumierster and Posner were the champions and were awarded the medals.

"All men interested in boxing are urged to begin training immediately after registration today." Plans are being made for the tournament to be held the first stag of the spring semester. Medals will be given to the winners of their respective weight divisions.

Occidental—"Occidental's 1932 championship cage bid received a rude jolt when the Tiger hoopsters dropped a 31-26 battle to the cham-

Women Candidates Plan Tournaments
More candidates are reporting for the hockey squad at every practice, making the prospects brighter for a good season. Approximately sixty-five women have turned out thus far.

Ellen Foote, coach, plans to have four teams of equal strength to play off a round robin tournament for a championship and by this she will be able to get a better line on the players and be able to choose a first and second team of the freshmen and sophomore women.

College Women To Begin Swimming
Swimming season began in earnest this week. The class meets on Tuesdays and Thursday afternoons from three to four o'clock.

Life saving will be offered with this course which may be taken for credit or for W. A. A. team credit. This course is very valuable and every woman planning to major in physical education is urged to take it as it will be of aid to her in college.

Ellen Foote, junior college coach, will be the instructor of this sport,

Delvings of the Dons

BY BOB DURBIN

DIGGING OUT

This is the last issue in which "The Delving of the Dons" will appear, and the conductor of this column wishes the sports editor for the second semester the best of luck, and may he predict more victories for the Dons that I have been able to do during the last semester.

Many thanks are due to the physical education department of the college, because they are the source of most sport news, and have given endless time and effort for the success of the sports department of this publication.

Apologizes are due to Eddie West of the Santa Ana Register. He was kind enough to loan us the cut of "Swede" Whisler to run in last week's paper. It is proper newspaper ethics to place under the picture the name of the publication loaning the cut, but due to an error the name of the paper was left off.

The interclass track meet should break all records as far as the competition is concerned. This year the sophomores, who won the meet as freshmen last year, will need every man available out to pick up any stray points that may be left by the freshmen. I shall predict a win for the sophomores, but not by a very large margin. I also predict that Jim Daneri will win the shot put, discus, javelin, low hurdles, and quarter mile providing he enters all of these events. You can see by the above who the iron man of the meet will be, and the worst of it is that his points will count for the freshmen. The meet is slated for February the 12, and it may be extended over a period of days if all the events cannot be completed in one day.

Padres Victorious
The Dons won a hard fought battle from the San Berdoo Indians, and established a news sports relationship with this institution. This next week they have a bye in their schedule, but have a practice game with Woodbury's Business college, from Los Angeles. This should prove anything but a breather for the Don basketballers, and may turn out to be an upset. The Dons should win by 10 points.

Did you know that all the sports written thus far this year would fill a book of about 50,000. That some games are written up before they are played. That sport editors can help make or ruin an athlete.

Well, now that my delvings have dug a hole big enough to crawl into I will go into hibernation for the next semester, at least as far as writing sports is concerned.

Mrs. Foote is very experienced in this capacity as she has taught swimming and coached swimming teams in both high school and junior college since she has been at this institution.

Meets will also be held with the high school and other junior colleges or high schools if it can be arranged. All girls who are interested are urged to report to Mrs. Foote this week.

INDIANS ARE DEFEATED BY DON QUINTET

Thiery Is High Point Man Of Game By Scoring Twelve Points

San Bernardino's Indians were defeated 30 to 26 by Coach Bill Foote's valiant Dons last Saturday evening on the tribe's home floor.

The game started slowly with neither side scoring or even attempting a shot for several minutes. "Hen" Thiery then scored three baskets in rapid succession to make the score 6-0 in favor of the Dons. The Redskins then tossed one goal which was followed by another in a short time. This made the score 6-4. Both sides scored in rapid succession to bring the score to 8-6 at the half the teams were even 13 to 13. From the middle of the first half neither team was ahead more than two points at any time. Coach Foote's starting lineup of Thiery and Seacord at forward, Stull, center, and Hall and Sullivan, guards played the entire first half without a substitution.

Hall Starts Rally
Immediately after the start of the second half Jim Hall sank three baskets from back of the foul line. The Dons kept their lead throughout the remainder of the game.

San Bernardino's fast short passing offense was unable to break through the Dons man to man defense except in a few cases.

Walton, Indian center earned high point honors with 14 points, six goals and two free throws.

Thiery, brilliant red haired Don forward was second with twelve points. Seacord scored three goals and two free throws, bringing his total up to eight.

The lineup:
San Bernardino (28) Santa Ana (31)
Evans (4).....F..... (18) Seacord
Schletzer (2).....F..... (12) Thiery
Hughes.....C..... (3) Stull
Lund.....G..... Sullivan
Brassfield.....G..... (4) Hall
Substitutions: Santa Ana—
Brooks (2), Homan (2), Spangler.
San Bernardino—Downing (1),
Lindley (3), Walton (14), Spear
(1), Vercellino (1).

More Equipment To Help Baseball

Twelve new uniforms, two dozen new bats, and a new catchers outfit will be available for the baseball team when the season starts next March. According to Wilton Hilliard, commissioner of men's athletics, a sufficient budget has been set aside by the executive board to take care of the initial expenses and great things are planned for the team this year when it makes its first appearance in the Eastern J. C. league.

Practice games have been scheduled with the Long Beach, Compton, Pasadena, and Fullerton nines, as well as with the U. S. C. freshmen. The league games will be played with Citrus, Chaffey, Pomona, Riverside, San Bernardino and Fullerton.

A good turnout is expected as many of the men on last year's team will still be in school. Among the veterans are Jim Daneri, Les Fulsom, Paul Wright, Dante Siracusa, Henry Thiery, Wilton Hilliard, Russell Sullivan, Jimmy Hall, and Burton Allen.

Moavs Name Miss Edith Bailey As Group President

Will Hold Social At Mt. Baldy In February

At the meeting of the Moav club, Monday evening, in the home of Miss Elizabeth Riniker, an election of officers was held for next semester.

Miss Edith Bailey was chosen, the new president, succeeding Miss Helen Campbell; Miss Joanna Day will fill the office of vice-president and social chairman previously held by Miss Elizabeth Skiles; Miss Katherine Chapman replaces Miss Jane Cunningham as secretary-treasurer; and Miss Dulcie Green was elected to Miss Eleanor Wisner's position as publicity chairman.

A rush party and pledging for the new semester were discussed. After examinations a week-end party at Mt. Baldy is planned.

Merrill Reviews Mencken Book At Tustin Saturday

The book review group met for the first time after vacation Saturday evening at E. M. Nealley's home, in Tustin, when Glenn Merrill reported on "What I Believe", by H. L. Mencken.

It was announced that the philosophy of George Jean Nathan would be discussed next week, and on the week following, there also will be a review in spite of examinations.

Due to the fact that an article cannot fully express a man's beliefs, the reviewer remarked that it was impossible to realize Mencken's entire philosophy by reading such a short account of it. Extracts from his "Book of Burlesque" were read.

Mencken believes that anything that does not pass the test of reason or of practicality has no value. According to Mencken, society is like the biological process, for it cannot be greatly retarded or stimulated.

These present were the Misses Gertrude Jentges, Helen Campbell, Eleanor Ryan, Jane Cunningham, and Messrs. C. E. Corcoran, Jack Green, Harry Clayton, Lewis Bates, Howard Randales, Glenn Merrill and Mrs. E. M. Nealley.

further support of associated student ticket sales. The presidents decided to have a picture 3 1/2 by 5 inches at a cost of six dollars for Del An. A rebate might be worked out so that clubs will be reimbursed in proportion to the number of members holding associated student tickets, and greater cost will be born by non-ticket holders who insist on membership in clubs without membership in the associated students.

A recommendation that all club presidents cooperate with the executive board and drop all members at the next club meeting who have no associated student tickets was adopted.

At the conclusion of the meeting George Griffith, retiring associated student president, extended his best wishes to the group and asked it to carry on with a spirit as fine as it had shown in this semester.

Miss Marjorie Arundell, social commissioner, served wafers with tuna and apple salad to the following student officials, advisers and guests: Dr. Percy R. Books Are Valuable Possessions—Eliot

Every one has heard of the five foot shelf of books selected by President Eliot of Harvard. Education is within reach of every one who will devote a limited time each day to good reading, according to Mr. Eliot.

He says, "Books are the quietest and most constant friends; they are most patient teachers. With his daily work and his books, many a man whom the world thought forlorn has found life worth living. It is necessary for this happy intercourse with books. Ten minutes a day devoted affectionately to good books - indeed to one book of the first order like the English Bible or Shakespeare, or two or three books of the second order like Homer, Virgil, Milton or Bacon will in thirty years make all the difference between a cultivated and uncultivated man, between a man mentally rich and a man mentally poor. The pleasure of reading are, of course in a good part pleasures of the imagination; but they are just as natural and actual as pleasures of the senses, and are often more accessible and more lasting."

and Howard Welsh, who try to "make a match" between the bashful girl; Ione De Remer, and the boy, Paul Snow, is prevalent in the former. A serious mood is evinced in "Trifles", a dramatic mystery, played by Elizabeth Bruner, Cecil Slaback, Russell Harrington, Mrs. Martenet and David Vale.

Evening Plays
More time has been spent on the four plays to be presented in the evening and more finished products will be shown, it was stated. Contributions for tonight are "Pearls", which has a surprise ending; "The Knife", an intense drama; "White Elephants", an amusing farce; and "Babbit's Boy", a scene of domestic disturbances. Characters for the first of these plays are Martha Henderson, B. Riniker of Santa Ana sisters; Jack Stedman, the brother; and Bob Nichols, the detective. In the "Knife" Althea Lemke plays the faithless wife; Cecil Slaback, her husband and the doctor; Mark Hare, the other man; Bernice Keller, the nurse; and Bert Winslow, an attendant.

Douglas McAdams and Beth Colar are the burglars in "White Elephants", while Dave Vale and May Maag play the newly weds. Douglas McAdams is again cast in "Babbit's Boy" as the father; Bonnie Kaiser, the mother; Paul Snow, the boy; Pauline Duckett, his sister; and Hazel Stuke, the girl.

Musical numbers and other entertainment are being planned for the time elapsing between each act. After the final number, the dramatists, Mr. Phillips, and members of the stage crew will have a plebian luncheon of home-made tamales and coffee.

Riniker Appointed Assistant Auditor

Edward B. Riniker of Santa Ana recently was appointed assistant auditor of Santa Ana schools and is now working under the direction of E. D. Boynton, auditor. The position was created as a means of saving money by grouping the duties of several part time secretaries under one management.

Young Riniker graduated from junior college here in 1928 and spent the next two years at the University of Southern California in the study of accounting. For the past year he has been getting experience in his profession.

While in junior college Mr. Riniker took a prominent part in school activities, having been commissioner of forensics '26; treasurer of Associated Students '27; and member of debating team, French club, Honor Society, Beta Gamma, and Y. M. C. A.

CONGRATULATIONS

W. A. A. Group Holds Luncheon At Laguna

W. A. A. cabinet members held their semester bridge luncheon in the Mad Hatter tea room at Laguna Beach recently.

The luncheon was served at 1:00 p. m. and the rest of the afternoon was spent in playing bridge. First honors were given Miss Catherine Harwood, while consolation went to Miss Helen Bowers.

Those present at the gathering included the cabinet, composed of Miss Zena Leck, adviser; Miss Lorna Allen, president; Miss Catherine Harwood, vice-president; Florence Stanley, secretary; and Hazel Hushman, treasurer. Special guests were the manager; Florence Turner, swimming manager; Helen Bower, tennis manager; Coach Ellen Foote; and Miss Evelyn Yount, a teacher in the physical education department last year.

nearest opponent with 61, while Miss Edna Bargsten had 33.

The amendment, attached to the ballot after a recent meeting of the executive board carried 128 to 3, and now reads as follows: "All registered students and faculty members of the Santa Ana junior college purchasing an Associated Student ticket are members of the Associated Students of Santa Ana college."

Commissioners who will serve on the board for the coming semester will be named this week by President Siracusa, who will officially take over his new duties after the joint meeting of the old and new boards next week.

King's Day
Paying tribute to its out-going king, the populace gathered in the assembly hall, yesterday morning, to view the pageantry and show which unfolded before the throng. The enthroned monarch's wishes were interpreted by the jester, Don Smith.

At his highness' request L. L. Beeman, history instructor, presented members of the faculty. After the introduction, entertainment was furnished by Miss Frances Bowman, who recited "Jack in the Bin Stalk".

Mrs. Robert Northcross, women's dean, gave her welcome to sophomores, which was delayed at the first of the year because of her failure to arrive from Europe at the appointed date. Other numbers on the program included an accordion solo, a piano solo, and a number of magic tricks.

One of the features was a short skit, "Ivan Skizivitski Shivar", by Sheldon M. Hayden, forensic instructor; Martin Bowman and Gene Olsen. As a concluding number the great "Zango", Bill McCormack, displayed his skill.

J. C. Class In Visit To Furniture Store

Members of the interior decoration class, under the direction of Miss Hazel Dawson, visited Chandler's furniture store recently to discuss the buying of furniture for a living room.

The women were shown many different types of furniture. Each member of the class has selected a house plan and is furnishing it with a certain amount of money. This trip was planned in order that the women might discover the good and bad points of all furniture and to make it easier to furnish a house.

Another such trip is being planned by the class for the near future.

Santa Anans Attend Y.W.C.A. Conference

An all-day intercollegiate Y. W. C. A. conference in Los Angeles was attended recently by the Misses Elizabeth Riniker and Jane Cunningham, representing the local organization.

During the morning session, which was conducted by Miss Dorothy Hamilton of U. C. L. A., sectional chairman, budget problems were discussed and methods by which money could be raised were considered. Exchanging ideas and weighing their value was intended to be helpful. The lunch hour provided an opportunity for the girls of the various colleges to become acquainted and to talk over the activities of the past semester.

CONGRATULATIONS
An ancient historical maxim reads "to the winner belong the spoils." I should like to change this to "to the winner of the Associated Student presidency belongs the cooperation of all."

It is needless to say that I wish for Dante Siracusa the greatest success. May he enjoy the greatest reign of all Don "Kings".

Factor Employee Speaks To Alpha Rho Tau Member

Tells Of Practical Points Used In Make-Ups

Presenting practical points of make-up as well as demonstrating studio secrets in aging youthful actors, A. B. Shore, Max Factor representative spoke to Alpha Rho Tau members, drama students, and the friends Friday evening in the hut.

Miss Florine Pollock preceded the talk by singing "For you Alone" to Ceel and "Top o' the morning" to Mani-Zucca. Mrs. H. R. Pollock accompanied her daughter.

In speaking of make-up Mr. Shore said it was the artistic blending of high lights and reverse use of shadows. The aim of the make-up artist is to supply depth to the model similar to portrait art. Art is the application of knowledge and skill. He said whatever looks becoming is correct, but many people lack aesthetic sense. However, make-up can be taught.

One of the best safe guards of youthful beauty is absolute cleanliness with a liberal supply of soap, warm water, and a final application of cold water, according to Mr. Shore. Plucking eyebrows must be done artistically or one is apt to produce a very stupid expression. Proper make-up should define various features to a pleasing proportion, said the Hollywood expert.

Choosing Miss Gertrude Chapman for his subject, Mr. Shore transformed her into an old woman, and then illustrated how panchromatic colors are used for screen work by changing Miss Chapman's make-up into that of a charming young woman. He explained technicalities of the motion picture industry and mentioned the responsibility of the directors and staff artists for the correctness of each picture.

Under the direction of Miss Marion Parsons, the members and guests enjoyed an informal tea hour at the conclusion of Mr. Shore's talk.

Series Of Teas For Women Will Be Held

Beginning a series of afternoon socials for the Associated Women students, Mrs. Robert Northcross, adviser, held a tea for a group of women recently at her home, 138 Spurgeon street.

Members of the advisory board who assisted in arranging the affair were the Misses Elizabeth Palmite, Althea Lambe, Virginia Warner, Marion Parsons, and Adahuth Ellis. The guests attended the gathering after their daily classes.
